Construction Bonding Services

A priority for the Charlotte Business INClusion (CBI) Program is to provide a construction bonding services program that will educate the city's minority, women and small business enterprises (MWSBEs) on how to obtain construction bonding in an effort to help encourage their participation in city construction contracts. Service Providers are to provide full descriptions of their service functionality, identify where the program would be located, and provide the cost to operate and maintain a construction bonding program. Service providers shall describe the relationship with the bond company that will be providing construction bonds for eligible certified firms.
